Coaches will provide safe, organized instruction and training for various skill levels. Coaches may provide input concerning club business, but the final decision regarding club matters will be made by the club officers. Club sports are student-led organizations, and coaches must not interfere with this primary aspect of the Club Sports Program.

Coaches must always conduct themselves in a manner that does not detract from the reputation of West Virginia University. This includes behavior in game situations, contact with other teams, interaction with event staff, as well as interaction with West Virginia University Campus Recreation staff. Coaches will uphold West Virginia University's no hazing policy by not allowing a culture of hazing within the club.
