   a. In order for the rule to be called, the batter must contact the ball and the trajectory of the ball be of ordinary effort for the infield to make a play on the ball in the infield. The ball must be a fair ball and the apex of the ball will be at the discretion of the umpire; which cannot be protested.
   b. Once called by the umpire, with their index finger out and pointing vertically, runners advance at their own risk, force not in effect.
2. Obstruction: When a fielder does not have the ball and is not in the act of fielding a batted ball, an obstruction occurs if that fielder impedes the progress of a base runner. When a base runner is obstructed, they shall not be called out until they have reached the base in question. Once they have reached the base, they are no longer protected. The ball is live throughout this entire process.

5.0 = Superior → Outwardly enthusiastic and courteous to other teams and their players
4.0 = Good → Respectful, pleasant behavior, no warnings
3.0 = Average → Overall acceptable behavior, some issues with individual participants, receive and adhere to verbal warnings, no unsportsmanlike conduct fouls.
2.0 = Poor → Little control over unsportsmanlike behavior, multiple unsportsmanlike conduct fouls, no ejections
1.0 = Unacceptable → No control over unsportsmanlike behavior, one ejection
